镇江简介&地图 of ZHENJIANG

Zhenjiang is a southern Jiangsu city that sits on the southern shore of the Yangtze River. The place is featured in Chinese legend 'The Legend of the White Snake'. A large number of precious stone stelae could be found here. Jinshan, Jiaoshan and Beigushan mountains, or the 'Three Peaks of Jingkou', are popular attractions in the city.

Zhenjiang's very unique food culture is represented by three unusual food - vinegar that cannot go bad over time, pork trotter aspic which is eaten during tea time, and noodles that are cooked along with a pot lid.

Jinshan Mountain

Named as one of the 'Three Peaks of Jingkou' together with Jiaoshan mountain and Beigushan mountain, visitors usually visit Jinshan mountain to experience the ambience and story background depicted in the 'White Snake Folklore'. Jinshan Temple is built at the mountainside, ascending to the mountaintop, featuring a unique mountain view.

Beigushan Mountain

Situated at the edge of Yangtze River, overlooking the entire river. This is where the well-known Ganlu Temple located, and also where the legendary warlord Liu Bei met his wife. Other than that, there are many spots associated with the history of Three Kingdoms. A famous scholar from Southern Song dynasty once left his famous quote about parenthood with a reference on the Three Kingdoms tale here.
